GC Youth Dies In I-70 Crash

Michael Gene Kruse, 18, of 2007 Thirteenth St., was injured fatally when his car went out of control on Interstate 70 south of East St. Louis at 11 p.m. Saturday and struck a bridge abutment.

Two passengers in the auto, William J. Bulva, 19, of 1220 Iowa St., Madison, and Andrew L. Manet, 17, of 3303 Harvard Drive, escaped injury.

Kruse was thrown out of the car, state police said. He was taken to St. Mary's Hospital in East St. Louis and transferred to Firms Desloge Hospital, St. Louis, where he was pronounced dead upon arrival at 1:15 a.m. yesterday.

The youths were returning from a fraternity house in St. Louis where they had been painting the house. Kruse, a member of the fraternity, was to have been a sophomore at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy this year. He was a 1970 graduate of Granite City High School.

Born in Granite City, he was a life-long resident of Granite City and was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Madison. His mother, Mrs. Stella Kruse, preceded him in death last year.

MICHAEL GENE KRUSE

He is survived by his father, Joseph S. Kruse; one brother, Joseph Kruse Jr. of Granite City; one sister, Mrs. Stephen (Mary Ann) Konch of Granite City; and a niece, Miss Michelle Lynn Kruse of Granite City. Funeral arrangements may be found in today's obituary column.

Steel Merger Wins With Large Margin

(Related Story on Page 10)

The proposed merger of Granite City Steel Co. into a wholly-owned subsidiary of National Steel Corporation was given substantial approval by the holders of both common and preferred stock of Granite City Steel at a special meeting of stockholders Thursday afternoon at the company's main office here.

The merger previously had been approved by the Boards of Directors of both companies, and it is expected the merger will become effective about the middle of August.

Each share of Granite City Steel common stock then will be converted into .4445 of a share of National Steel common stock. The name of the wholly-owned subsidiary of National Steel will remain Granite City Steel Co.

Reasons for Merger
The proxy statement for the special meeting stated the "Reasons for the Merger" as follows:

"It is believed that the proposed merger will result in greater and more diversified earning power for stockholders of Granite City through operating economies, the integration of the facilities and organizational strengths of National and Granite City and diversification of resources of the two companies. Management of Granite City believes that the merger will add financial strength to its operations, facilitating modernization, replacement or addition of plant and facilities.

Fire Guts Bus on I-70: None Hurt

All passengers were evacuated to safety from a Greyhound bus which was destroyed by fire at 5:20 p.m. Sunday on Interstate 70, about a half-mile east of Route 203, south of Madison. The interior of the over-the-road vehicle was gutted and all luggage belonging to the passengers was lost, according to a state police report.

Passengers left the bus after driver, Alvin L. Lofton of Chicago, pulled to the shoulder of the highway when a left inside tire blew out and began smoking. Efforts by the driver to extinguish the rising blaze were futile and the fire continued into the vehicle's interior despite further attempts to control it by the drivers of another bus and two state trucks.

23% Water Rate Raise Is Sought

The East St. Louis & Interurban Water Company announced Friday that it will have to charge more for its product in order to meet the ever-increasing cost of providing water service to its customers.

Robert Greaves, manager of the utility, said the company has asked the Illinois Commerce Commission for permission to increase its charges uniformly across the board, to all classes of customers with one exception. Public fire protection charges will not be increased.

The overall increase in all area classes will average about 23%.

The filing with the commission for increased rates is based on the value of the company's plant and property as of Dec. 31, 1970, the cost of construction of additional facilities to which it is committed, and the results of operations for the 12 months ended Dec. 31, 1970, adjusted to reflect conditions prevailing at the end of the 12-month period.

Mr. Greaves explained that existing charges for water service are based upon property in service and operating costs for the 12 months ended Sept. 30, 1968, which was almost three years ago, although, due to necessary hearings before the commission and investigation of the facts by the commission, the existing rates did not become effective until Aug. 31, 1970.

Victim of Inflation
"It's hard to provide service today at 1968 prices, which is what we are doing," Mr. Greaves said. "We're as much the victim of inflation as anyone; perhaps even more so."

Capt. Bergfield Vietnam Victim

The death in Vietnam of a former Granite City resident, a helicopter pilot and winner of the Silver Star, has been confirmed by military authorities. Captain Philip R. Bergfield, U.S. Army, was declared missing in action after the mid-air collision of two U.S. aircraft on July 3. The officer was completing a second 12-month tour of duty in Vietnam.

The son of Mrs. Vernie E. Nolen of St. Jacob, Ill., and Walter I. Bergfield Sr., of Fontana, Calif., both former residents, Capt. Bergfield was married last Oct. 17 to the former Miss Cynthia Mae Krenzick of Racine, Wis.

The helicopter pilot's wife is a captain in the U.S. Army Nurse Corps, stationed in Saigon, Vietnam.

Capt. Bergfield was born in Granite City and attended local schools prior to moving from the community in 1957. He was a student at Collinsville High School and later at Triad High School from where he was graduated in 1965. He would have observed his 24th birthday last Friday.

The officer enlisted in the service at 18 and planned to make a career in the Army. He started his second Vietnam tour last November and early this year was decorated for heroism with the Silver Star and the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Capt. Bergfield also held the Army Commendation Medal, Air Medal, National Service Medal and Vietnam Service Ribbon. The pilot had been based in the vicinity of Hue, Phu Bai, Vietnam.

Beside his wife and parents, Capt. Bergfield is survived by a son, Stephen Philip Bergfield of Omaha, Neb.; a brother, Gene Raymond Bergfield of St. Jacob, currently serving with the U.S. Navy at Great Lakes, three half-brothers, Walter Bergfield of Granite City, Edwin Bergfield of St. Louis and Melvin Ballard of Godfrey; a half-sister, Carol Bergfield of Phoenix, Ariz.; and a maternal grandmother, Mrs. Kate Robertson of Steele, Mo.

Upon arrival of the service man's remains, full military services will be conducted at the Spengel-Boulanger Chapel in Highland. Interment will be at Sunset Hill Cemetery, Edwardsville Township. Arrangements are pending at the Highland funeral home.

GC Rapid Transit Link Part of Second Phase

Phase I of 32 miles, costing $1,500,000,000 is to link East St. Louis, St. Louis, Clayton, Lambert Airport and Interstate 270 north of the airport.

B. E. Bud' Long Dies
Branford E. "Bud" Long, 3285 Erin Drive, a former long-time employee of the Aro-Dressel Dairy, collapsed at noon today at Central Junior High School, where he was employed as custodian. He was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital. Funeral arrangements are pending at Mercer Mortuary, 1416 Niedringhaus Ave.

City Okays Joint Area Sewer Program 13 to 0

An agreement by which Granite City and the four townships of the Quad-City area will cooperate in the development of an areawide sewer system serving residents of the unincorporated portions of Venice, Nanticoke, Chouteau townships was approved by the Granite City Council in a special meeting Friday night.

Although the project was met with some aldermanic reluctance when first presented several months ago, the agreement was approved unanimously by 13 of the council's 14 members present at the special session.

Only alderman absent was Walter Nomm, who reported to the city clerk that he had to work.

The agreement was drafted jointly by City Attorney Leon Scroggins, representing the city, and Attorney William Schooley, representing the township committee which is developing the township area sewer project under sponsorship of the Madison County Board of Supervisors.

The agreement provides that Granite City shall construct the interceptor lines through which the township system would discharge its sewage flow for treatment at Granite City's treatment plant. In return, the townships agree to establish a rental fee equivalent to pay 20% of the cost of building the interceptor lines.

Points of Agreement

Other points of the pact specify that the agreement is to be acceptable to the townships if it is approved by the government agencies which would provide state and federal grants for both the city's sewage treatment project and the township's sewer installation work.

It provides also that the city shall provide a tentative rate schedule as soon as possible, and that if the rate schedule is unacceptable in a agreement shall become unenforceable and can be withdrawn.

The plan as outlined in a series of meetings between city and township officials during the past several months calls for use of Granite City treatment facilities for disposal of sewage from the township areas. A fee in addition to cost of the interceptor lines also would be worked out for use of the city's treatment facilities.

To Build Plant

Granite City now has in advanced stage plans for construction of a secondary sewage treatment plant and an interceptor system that will cost an estimated $15.3 million. Mayor Donald Partney said 80% of the cost can be financed with a federal grant for 50% of the cost and a state grant for 30% of the cost.

This leaves a local cost share of 20% which would be picked up by the revenue from the township rates for the interceptor lines.

Representing the townships in development of the rural area sewer project are Supervisors Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City township, Arthur "Cooper" Moore of Venice township, Lewis Whittell of Nanticoke township and Walter Sparks of Chouteau township. County Board Chairman Harold Landolt also is a member of the township sewer development committee.

$525,985 Laclede Steel 2nd Quarter Earnings

Laclede Steel Co. President Paul B. Akin in a letter to stockholders Friday reported that the company earned $525,985 or $2.25 per share in the second quarter of 1971. In the same period last year, Laclede lost $597,633.

Akin said Laclede's earnings for the first six months of this year were $732,231 — a definite improvement over the company's loss of $2,924,254 in the first half of 1970.

The company president explained to the stockholders, "Although second-quarter shipments were at record levels, the final volume of shipments was less than we had anticipated earlier in the year."

At the Laclede Steel annual stockholders' meeting on May 20 this year, Akin had predicted that Laclede's earnings would approach $1,000,000 for the first half of 1971. The lower than expected shipments and increased rebuilding and repair costs during this first-half period of high production reduced earnings somewhat.

Decline in Steel Demand
Akin had also told stockholders at the May meeting that third quarter earnings could reach $1,000,000 if volume held up.

However, in his letter to the Laclede stockholders, Akin said estimates of earnings for Laclede in the third quarter of this year now are unpredictable because of the marked and unexpected decline in steel demand during the latter part of the second quarter — and the present undetermined outcome of labor negotiations with major steel companies.

The Laclede Steel president also told stockholders, "I am pleased to advise you that Laclede's $3,000,000 of short-term debt due in mid-September 1971 was paid in full on July 12."

Venice Township Tax Collection to End

Venice township tax collections will be discontinued at the local collection office, Fourth Street and Madison Avenue, at the 3 p.m. closing on Friday, Town Collector Frank Reidelberger Jr. announced today.

Collection of taxes for the 1970 year began in early 1970 and have continued at "about an average pace," Reidelberger said. Venice township taxpayers were charged with payment of a total of $3,030,003 in locally extended taxes.

After the books are balanced they will be returned to the county treasurer where tax payments may be made later.

Deltour's Job Proper, County Officials Approve

Appointment of Roger Deltour, former assistant supervisor of Nameoki Township, as the first Madison County mobile home inspector is legal and proper, according to county officials.

Deltour has been at work at the $650 per month job for the past three weeks following his appointment by a committee of the Madison County Board of Supervisors.

The question of the appointment was raised at last month's meeting of the County Board when Roger Eble, Wood River Township supervisor, claimed that a member of the board could receive no appointment to a county position during his term of office.

Miss Eulalia Hotz, county clerk and clerk of the Board of Supervisors, noted that Deltour's term expired last April and that the members of the board were permitted to continue to serve until the new reappointed 28-member supervisory board is instituted last May. Deltour announced his resignation from the board last month.

She added that the board's committee has the authority to make such appointments.

Marshall Smith, assistant state's attorney and legal advisor to the County Board, concurred, commenting that it "ought to be left as is."

Eble claimed that the law defines the term of office as the period of time for which the supervisor was elected, not at the period of time in which the supervisor serves in the position. Smith agreed with Eble's interpretation of the law but said it does not apply in Deltour's case.

Meanwhile another question arose over the appointment of David Hucksby by the Nameoki Township Board to succeed Eble as a member of the County Board.

Assistant supervisors whose terms expired last April continued to serve during the "lame duck" period until May on the basis of an opinion by the state attorney general. The provision was omitted in state statutes which instituted the revised county governing boards in Illinois to take effect May 1.

Federal Law Against Bingo Ads, Listings

(Copley News Service)

Washington—Illinois newspapers will break the law if they run bingo ads despite the fact Gov. Richard Ogilvie has signed a bill legalizing bingo.

This was the response of legal counsel for the U.S. Postal Service when queried.

Officials in the Office of the Consumer Protective Division pointed out that several other states, New York and New Jersey, for example have legalized lotteries.

But such state laws do not affect federal laws prohibiting the mailing of advertising for lotteries, they said.

There is also an express federal prohibition against newspapers printing lists of lottery winners.

By definition, a lottery is essentially a plan containing the elements of prize, chance and consideration. Bingo generally falls within this definition, postal legal officials said.

The Rev. Larry Jackson officiated at the 7:30 ceremony before the altar adorned with white and pink flowers. Hurricane lamps down the aisle were entwined with smilax, and white bows marked the pews.

Marian Marie Haddock Bride of Robert Clinton

The wedding of Miss Marian Marie Haddock, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Haddock, 1685 Market St., Madison, and Robert J. Clinton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Clinton, 1674 Second St., Madison, took place Saturday evening at the Nameoki Methodist Church in Granite City.

The Rev. Donald Bogue of the United Methodist Church of Madison officiated at the ceremony at 7:30 in the evening in a candlelight setting.

Satin bows decorated the candleholders and floral arrangements were at the altar. Mr. Haddock escorted his daughter down the white-carpeted aisle.

She was lovely in a floor-length gown of white polyester organza. Imported cotton Venice lace appliqued the high mandarin collar and cuffs on the short puffed sleeves.

More lace encircled the high waistline and trimmed the front of the A-line skirt, giving a redingote effect. Lace also enhanced the full chapel train. A matching profile headpiece of Venice lace and tiny pearls secured the three-tiered bouffant veil of imported bridal illusion.

The bride bouquet, a colonial was fashioned of white daisies and sweethearts roses intermingled with baby's breath.

Neal Seymour, organist, accompanied the soloist, Kevin Hofstad of Edwardsville, as he sang "A Time for Us," "One Hand, One Heart," "Where Thou Goest," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Connie Bosworth, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor, serving with Mrs. Emily Thebeau, Mrs. Marianna Davis, Mrs. Cynthia Siegfried, a cousin of the groom, bridesmaids. Little Michelle Honerkamp was the flower girl and Christina Graves, the rice girl. The bride selected floor-length gowns fashioned with detachable linen voile skirts and white voile blouses.

The blouses featured lime and orange rick-rack braid around the pointed collars and cuffs of the long-puffed sleeves and self-covered buttons down the front of the bodice. The gathered skirts were made with shirred waistbands accented at the hemline by rows of braid.

Lime hairband picture hats edged with rick rack formed their headpieces. Each carried a basket of multi-colored daisies and baby breath. The flower girl's dress matched the maid's. Her headpiece was a halo of white daisies with yellow centers and orange baby roses, entwined with ivy. She carried a white lace basket of rose petals.

The rice girl, Mrs. Nellie Durbin, was dressed the same except for her skirt which was of orange trimmed with lime green.

Robert Graves served as best man, with groomsmen Thomas Thebeau, Ronald Davis, and Stanley Banasyak. Kevin Haddock, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Clay Haddock, a brother of the bride, and Dale Clinton, a brother of the groom, seated the guests.

After a short wedding trip the young couple will make their home at 2417a Grand Ave. The former Miss Haddock, a graduate of Madison High School, received a B.S. degree in Special Education from Southern Illinois University-Southwestern, and is a member of Kappa Alpha Mu Sorority.

The reception followed the wedding ceremony and was held at Tenth St., and Madison Avenue.

Mrs. Alan Nane, a recent bride, was guest of honor Thursday evening at a wedding shower given by her aunt, Mrs. Angie Maniaci, her mother-in-law, Mrs. Mildred Nane, and her mother, Mrs. Rose Schultz, at the Venice Recreation Center.

The newlyweds, who were married in June, have moved into their new home at 3217 Wayne Ave. Mrs. Nane is the sister-in-law of Mrs. Schuchman. A pink-and-white color-scheme was used and crepe streamers and white wedding bells provided the setting for the party.

The gift table, covered with a white cloth, was adorned with miniature pink umbrellas. A large overhanging umbrella held a basket covered with pink daisies, poms and carnations.

The guests were seated at tables which carried out the shower colors, and net candy favors were secured with wedding bands. A large cake was decorated with a miniature bride and groom and inscribed with the words "Congratulations Diana and Alan."

Several guests assisted the guest of honor in opening the gifts. They were Mrs. Terry Cooper, Miss Helen Walck, Miss Carol Howland, Miss Debbie Lewis, Mrs. Francis Brown and Miss Diane Malterok. Games were played and prizes were awarded.

Gift in Memory of Pioneer Resident

Miss Marguerite Barker, 3306 Franklin Ave., teacher of lower intermediate (fourth grade) classes at Niedringhaus School, has presented a batik on cotton to Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus in memory of her grandfather, the late Gustav A. Niemann.

A work of Catherine Milovich of the SIU-SW art faculty, the batik has been hung in the International Room of the University Center.

Entitled "Na Moru," Yugoslavian for "By the Sea," the work is one of a series of batiks by Mrs. Milovich inspired by a cruise to the Greek Islands and the Adriatic coast of Yugoslavia. Her late artist husband, Tanasos Milovich, was a native of Yugoslavia.

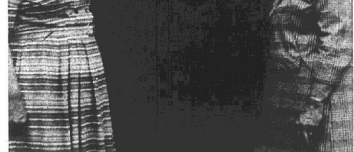

A pioneer of Granite City, which will celebrate its 75th anniversary Aug. 21-28, Gustave Niemann was born in Prussian Germany in 1881 and came to the United States in 1872. For the first six months he was employed in a Philadelphia store and then came to St. Louis, where he was a clerk for two years.

A resident of Venice from 1875, he opened a grocery firm—Kohl & Niemann—in 1880. The partners sold out in 1891 and Niemann helped organize the Venice Electric Light and Power Co., with franchises for service in Venice, Madison, Brooklyn and Granite City.

He disposed of these interests in 1902 when the firm of Kohl & Niemann established a building material business.

Niemann was one of the organizers in 1901 of the Granite City National Bank and served on its board of directors. In 1909, he helped organize the Granite City Trust & Savings Bank and served as a vice president. In 1911, he became a member of the Venice Board of Education.

Steelworkers Pact Reached; Strike Averted

By GARY SCHNEIDER

Press-Record Staff Writer

Pollution from American coke ovens is worse than that from German coke ovens, Dr. Werner Eisenhut, coke operation spokesman, said Friday during his closing testimony for Granite City Steel Co. in the Environmental Protection Agency hearings of charges of air pollution against the steel firm.

Dr. Eisenhut, a representative of the Steinkolbenbergshverein consulting firm in Essen, West Germany, said Germany leads the world in controlling pollution from coke producing operations, and that America trails because of a lack of control equipment and the highly volatile coal used here.

When asked to describe the basic difference between the two governments' handling of pollution from coke operations, the witness commented he had come here "to insist on the United States government" and would prefer not to detail differences.

Dr. Eisenhut does not speak English and an interpreter, Mrs. Hanna Kinsky of Chicago, translated his testimony during the three days of hearings last week.

Coke Oven Pollution Worse in U.S. Than in Germany, Witness Says

By GARY SCHNEIDER

Press-Record Staff Writer

Pollution from American coke ovens is worse than that from German coke ovens, Dr. Werner Eisenhut, coke operation spokesman, said Friday during his closing testimony for Granite City Steel Co. in the Environmental Protection Agency hearings of charges of air pollution against the steel firm.

Dr. Eisenhut, a representative of the Steinkolbenbergshverein consulting firm in Essen, West Germany, said Germany leads the world in controlling pollution from coke producing operations, and that America trails because of a lack of control equipment and the highly volatile coal used here.

When asked to describe the basic difference between the two governments' handling of pollution from coke operations, the witness commented he had come here "to insist on the United States government" and would prefer not to detail differences.

Dr. Eisenhut does not speak English and an interpreter, Mrs. Hanna Kinsky of Chicago, translated his testimony during the three days of hearings last week.

He first was called to the witness stand Wednesday morning by Thomas Sullivan of Chicago, and Randall E. Roberts of Granite City steel company attorneys, interrupting the prosecution of Herbert Caplin, assistant state attorney general representing the EPA.

Testimony for the defense continued until 2 p.m. Thursday when Caplin began his cross-examination. Responding to questions from Caplin, Dr. Eisenhut said that in Germany, pollution from coke ovens is "pushing" is so slight that as much or more dust is produced in the handling of coke than in those operations.

He said the quenching tower remains one of the worst pollution problems in German coke operations, but is a small problem in the United States, compared to the quantity of pollution produced by coke ovens.

The witness concluded his testimony Friday afternoon to return to West Germany. Another session of the hearings is to be held tomorrow in Chicago, but no witnesses are expected to be called as attorneys will use that time to settle legal arguments.

Tomorrow's session, Hearing Examiner Samuel Lawton is expected to adjourn the hearings for vacancies until after Aug. 30.

Thursday, Dr. Eisenhut testified to the amount of pollution from German steel factories and converted the amounts into U.S. measurements. He discussed the "pushing" operation, pushing coke from the ovens into railroad cars. He described attempts made to control pollution during this operation in German factories.

One method, he said, is spraying the cars with water during the push, a system that takes 80% of the dust particles from the air. He said the spraying system now is required and all German plants have until 1974 to install sprayers. About 80% of German coke operations presently utilize the system, he commented.

"I would urgently recommend this system first (at Granite City Steel Co.) and then wait until the developments in this field have been carried out so that the inhabitants of Granite City may actually get the largest degree of effectiveness," Dr. Eisenhut commented.

Another system utilized in Germany is use of a movable hood covering the coke oven during pushing, but he described the system as less effective than the spraying operation. The hood contained "scrubbers" to clean particles from the smoke, but in the pushing operation, the hood can not contain all of the smoke and the majority is pushed out of the bottom of the hood rather than through the scrubbers, the witness said. He showed a short film of a German coke plant using the hood.

Dinner Sept. 17 Honors Ogilvie; Fischer Named

Harold R. Fischer of Granite City, vice-chairman of the First Granite City National Bank, has accepted a position on the Executive Dinner Committee planning a large testimonial dinner to be held at the local hotel on Sept. 17.

Fischer was named to the committee of 100 by Brooks McCormick, chairman of the dinner.

The dinner—planned as one of the largest testimonial dinner gatherings in Illinois history—is scheduled to be held in the Don Maxwell Hall of McCormick Place.

In a letter sent to the committee to thousands of Illinois citizens, the chairman of the dinner praised Ogilvie's administration.

"In less than three years," the letter read, "Governor Ogilvie has won wide acclaim for his courageous and intelligent leadership in Illinois."

"While many states are floundering, our state is moving ahead in a climate of financial stability, because Dick Ogilvie has measured up to our fiscal challenges and made the difficult decisions necessary to balance the budget."

McCormick said the $100 per person dinner is being held to give deserved public recognition to the governor for his outstanding performance in office, to enthusiastically demonstrate that we want him to stand for re-election, and to raise funds to support him in this endeavor.

Co-chairman of the event are Mrs. Ernest LaFontaine of Chicago and M. R. Yoniz of Peoria. Other officers of the dinner committee are: treasurer, Russell W. Wendt of Haskin & Sells, and secretary and assistant treasurer, Robert D. Jones.

Fischer commented, "Governor Ogilvie's ability and political courage are recognized by many citizens of the Granite City area. Their deep respect for the governor and his accomplishments is sure that many will join in this testimonial to say thank you to a fine man—the leader of our state."

Alton & Southern Hit By Railroad Strike

The Alton & Southern Railroad joined ranks today by striking United Transportation Union workers Friday as the walkout continued to spread.

A total of ten rail lines were affected by the strike today. The walkout of Alton & Southern workers affected about 650 commuters at the East St. Louis and Mitchell yards. The Union and Pacific and Southern Railway have been idled.

The Norfolk & Western and the Southern Pacific shut down a week ago.

The Terminal Railroad Association remained the only major switching system in operation today and a spokesman said the strike thus far "has been like an increase in business for us."

Under normal conditions the Terminal handles about 10,000 cars a day. The area's switching business and Alton & Southern the remaining 40%.

The spokesman said there is a lot of work at the yard today. The Terminal switching lines, but no backlogs.

Affects upon industry as a result of the rail strike were being felt today as the Ford plant at Hazelwood, Mo., shut down because of lack of oil.

The plant is serviced by N&W lines. Other industries are expected to feel the impact of the line shutdowns unless a settlement is reached soon.

Labor Temple Applies For a Bingo License

The Tri-City Labor Temple Association has applied for a state license to operate a bingo game on a weekly basis, as permitted under a new bill signed into law by Gov. Richard Ogilvie.

The new state law permits bingo games no more than one night each week after Oct. 1, operated by non-profit organizations that have been in existence five years or more. Applicants must pay a $200 per year license fee and 10% of gross profits on all such operations.

2 Masonic Lodges to Honor 300 and Give 25-Year Pins

Cruse Joins in Threat to Quit Levee Bd. Post

The two Masonic Lodges of Granite City will award 25-year service pins to over 300 members in a joint ceremony Saturday at the Masonic Temple, 20th Street and Cleveland Blvd.

Festivities will begin with a service at 5 p.m. E. Gene Ross, member of the Board of Grand Examiners of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, will be the principal speaker of the evening.

The two lodges, Triple Lodge 635 and Granite City Lodge 877, together represent over 1,800 members of the Masonic fraternity.

Harold L. Coy and John W. Burgess, respective worshipful masters of the lodges, have extended invitations to all Master Masons to attend what will be a "first" in ceremony occasions for Masons in this area.

Many of the Illinois Grand Lodge officers will be in attendance. Granite City is preparing to celebrate its diamond jubilee, its 100th anniversary.

A spokesman added, "Freemasonry is a way of life—a kindness in the home, honesty in business, courtesy in society, fairness in love, charity to all, love for one another and, above all, a love for God."

"Freemasonry traces its ancestry to the operative crafts which records indicate were introduced into England as early as 674 A.D."

"In the late 17th or early 18th Century, as cathedral building came to an end, many of the operative lodges began accepting as members good men who were not stone masons. They were called Accepted or Speculative Masons."

"As time passed, and the Operative Masons became more and more scarce, the membership eventually became speculative."

Cruse Joins in Threat to Quit Levee Bd. Post

Von Dee Cruse, Granite City tavern operator who was elected as a member of the new East Side Levee and Sanitary District Board, has joined the other Quad-City trustees, Walter D. Greathouse, in threatening to resign from the board because of a "disgusting legal tangle."

Cruse and Greathouse represent the Quad-City area of the levee district and were elected June 22 in a special election as part of a new five-man board to replace present members of the levee board who are under conviction on charges of misconduct in office. The other three members were elected in St. Clair County.

The new board has been unable to take office, however, because of St. Appellate Court stay order permitting the present board members to remain in office pending an appeal of their convictions. Von Dee Cruse criticized the courts for "moving too slowly" and said he suspects some members of the old board feel the same way. "That we should get this thing going again," he said.

Greathouse announced last week that he intends to resign the levee board post if the "ridiculous" situation continues. Meanwhile, an appeal of a circuit court order restraining new trustees from taking office has been filed with the Fifth District Appellate Court at Mount Vernon. Associate Judge Howard L. White granted the injunction at Belleville July 6 and gave the new trustees until July 25 to file a suit for a declaratory judgment, as to which board is entitled to serve.

A Wendell Whately, attorney for the new trustees, said he decided instead to appeal the ruling in the injunction proceeding.

Wild Throw Gives Mercer 7-6 Victory

A wild throw enabled Mercer to pull one out of the fire in the last of the ninth inning in a 7-6 victory over Troy in Southwest Illinois Inter-City Baseball League action Sunday at Wilson Park.

Troy's Redbirds knotted the score at 6-6 in the top half of the frame after Mercer carried a 6-2 advantage.

Troy, the Red Division leader, tied it with four hits along with the assistance of a walk and two errors.

The final error by the Redbirds came after Billy Campbell singled, advanced to third on a hit by Bob Scott and came in on a ground ball hit by Ed Hagnauer.

The ball went to the Troy shortstop who forced Scott at second and an attempt for a double play at the plate went awry.

3 Million Visitors Expected at Carlyle Gould to Conduct Lake--Thanks to the Late Eldon Hazlet Symphony Bill

State Treasurer Alan J. Dixon announced Thursday that his investment program had earned a record $60,371,422 for the state of Illinois during fiscal year 1971, which ended June 30.

"That amount is paid into the state's General Revenue Fund—the fund used to pay the biggest majority of all the state's debts and obligations."

"This record earning of $60,371,422 is an increase of $2,184,998 over the amount earned in fiscal 1970," Dixon said.

"We made daily expenditures in amounts ranging from twenty to fifty million dollars, making it necessary to be in a fairly liquid cash position. In order to maintain this necessary liquidity, most of our investments are short-term maturities, with the statutory maximum limitation of one year."

"Therefore," the treasurer noted, "our investments are extremely sensitive to interest rate fluctuations. During this last year, average interest rates in the nation dropped 29.13%. The yield on our investments, however, declined only 12.77%. This, I believe, underscores the effectiveness of our cash management and investment program."

"We are presently developing a computerized forecasting system within our cash management program. This will enable us to accurately project, within a 13-month period, the money available for investment in all funds under the state treasurer's custody. As a result, we will have an even more effective investment program."

National Tea Sales, Profits on Uptrend

F. Bruce Krysiak, president and chief executive officer of National Tea Co., has reported an increase of sales and profits for the first quarter as compared to last year's results. For the 12 weeks ending June 26, profits increased 8.61% and sales increased 5.30%.

Krysiak said restructuring of various management responsibilities plus new sales and merchandising programs, coupled with expense control, should assure a continuous upward trend in sales and profits for National Tea this year. At a meeting of the board of directors last week, the regular quarterly dividend of 20 cents per share was declared payable Sept. 1 to shareholders of record Aug. 13.

Proposed Actions Would Remedy Most Air Pollution Here--Expert

A noted West German scientist who specializes in coke plant design and operation told an Illinois Pollution Control Board hearing here last week that a new design coal-charging car on order for Granite City Steel Co. will be "the most modern in the whole world" for the control of smoke and dust from coke ovens.

The process by which coal is converted into coke is the principal remaining source of air pollution at steel mills, it was asserted.

Dr. Werner Eisenhut of Essen, West Germany, appeared as a witness through Friday at Pollution Control Board hearings in the Granite City Steel Hall. The hearings, which began in April, result from a complaint against the steel company by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency.

Dr. Eisenhut, an advisor on environmental matters to the U. N. and a member of the Environmental Protection Cabinet of the Federal West German Republic, reviewed various parts of a program developed by Granite City Steel to substantially reduce emissions from its coke oven batteries.

Seek Approval of Program The company expects to invest several million dollars in additional pollution control facilities in the next two years if the program is approved by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency.

The West German scientist came to the Control Board hearing as a result of having met several times in recent years, the first in 1968, with Donald F. Cairns, a Granite City Steel vice-president, when Cairns was in Essen to study the pollution controls used by steel mills in the Ruhr Valley.

After examining the coke plant at Granite City Steel and engineering plans and specifications for new control facilities, Dr. Eisenhut made the following points in testimony:

1. Pollution control equipment on the new charging or "larry" car which Granite City Steel has on order is designed to remove an estimated 96% to 99% of the emissions which now escape into the air when fresh loads of coal are charged into the coke ovens.

2. The operator of the new "larry" car will be enclosed in a controlled-atmosphere cabin.

3. A system of baffles Granite City Steel proposes installing at its coke quenching station represents the best method for controlling mist and steam which billow into the air when quenching water is poured on a carload of burning coke.

4. Until a more reliable technology can be developed, water sprays or a water fogging system should be installed on the coke quench cars as an interim means for reducing dust and smoke which escapes when coke is pushed from an oven into the air and bursts into flames.

Dr. Eisenhut said about 80% of West Germany's coke ovens have been equipped with this interim device since December 1970 while other means of solving the problem are being studied.

On cross-examination by the state, Dr. Eisenhut said he would have given the same testimony had he been invited to testify by the state.

Tire Strikes Auto The right rear tire of a trailer of a truck driven by James Denis, Palmyra, Mo., struck the auto of Lloyd Ireland, 2200 Adams St., parked at 1500 Madison Ave. at 2:25 p.m. Thursday. The tire struck the rear of the auto, which was damaged.

Study Means to Lighten State Legislative Load

The Illinois State Chamber of Commerce has called on Illinois lawmakers to adopt new procedures and rules for efficient screening and handling of legislation to avoid repetition of the "herculean deluge of legislation" which confronted the first session of the 77th Illinois General Assembly.

A massive work load faces the Legislature when it reconvenes Oct. 5. During the first session, a record 5,144 bills and resolutions were introduced. About 1,849 bills were passed, about 1,000 were defeated or tabled and about 2,000 were held over to fall.

The situation prompted Lester W. Braun Jr., State Chamber president, to comment in the organization's latest bulletin:

"Members of the public, as well as many legislators, are frustrated in attempting to adequately consider—let alone comprehend—the morass of bills, amendments and resolutions confronting the Legislature."

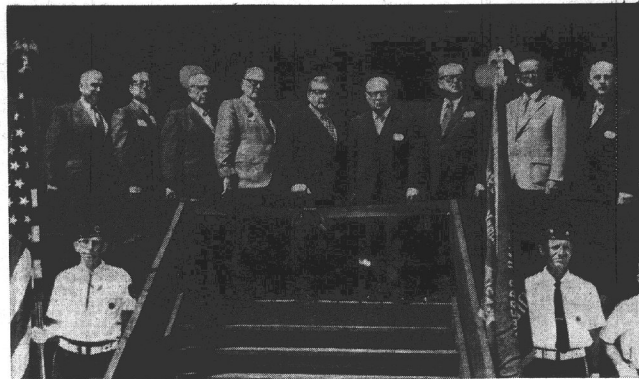

Braun urged the Commission on the Organization of the General Assembly (created by H. 2256) "to make some substantive recommendations to help alleviate this overwhelming situation."

Unfinished Business
"We are particularly concerned about the myriad of legislation carried over to the fall session. This unfinished business includes many key provisions to implement the new state constitution which became effective July 1."

"The work volume and traditional last-minute rush to dispose of critical legislation often results in inadequate hearings and study of key issues. The public gets short-changed."

In assessing the legislative picture, the State Chamber also urged Governor Ogilvie to appoint a Governor's committee comprised of private citizens and representatives of groups affected by the abolishment of the personal property tax to study the possible revenue losses and the possible alternatives.

State's First Tourist Center Opens on I-70

Governor Richard B. Ogilvie dedicated the new Vandallia, Ill., Tourist Information Center on Thursday.

The new tourist information facility is the first of its kind in Illinois. It will give information to travelers and also will be the official office of the Vandallia Chamber of Commerce.

The rustic, modern structure—located two blocks off the Vandallia exit of Interstate 70—is fully staffed and adds another tourist attraction to Vandallia's already famous Historic Illinois Statehouse, Madonna of the Trail Monument and Little Brick House.

It was in the Supreme Court house where Abraham Lincoln received his license to practice law on Sept. 8, 1836, room in the Vandallia State-

Post 51, Auxiliary to Enter Jubilee Parade

Amvets Post 51 and Auxiliary will enter a decorated float in the Granite City Diamond Jubilee Parade. It was announced at a meeting of the two organizations last week.

The parade to kick-off the week-long 75th anniversary celebration will take place at 2 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 21. Many local civic, service and fraternal groups have indicated they will sponsor parade units.

Ben Sanders, Amvets Post 51 commander, reported at the planning session that a 3th Division conference will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the local post home, 5100 Lakeview Drive. Members also started planning events in observance of Amvets Day, Sept. 5, and discussed purchasing a trophy case in which war mementoes and awards presented post members could be exhibited.

A series of turkey shoots will get underway Sunday, Sept. 19 at the post home, continuing each Sunday through the fall and early winter months, Sanders said. He noted that sponsorship of the public turkey shoots is the sole fund-raising project of the veteran's organization.

Floyd Tucker, post adjutant, reported a newsletter describing coming events is now being sent to all members.

June Canal Freight 4.7 Million Tons

Freight shipped through the Chain of Rocks locks and canal during June increased slightly over the May tonnage with shipments totaling 4,716,356 tons. Freight movements of 4,702,628 tons were reported in May, according to reports from the U.S. Corps of Engineers.

The volume also was an increase over June 1970 when shipments totaled 4,527,104 tons. A total of 6,027 vessels passed through the canal last month as compared to 5,889 in May and 5,819 in June 1970. Types of boats passing through the locks fluctuated somewhat last month with three classes of boats showing increases and four showing decreases.

Private recreation boats increased from 202 in May to 259 in June, while government tow boats increased from two to six and government barges increased from eight to 16 in the same period.

Commercial barges decreased from 4,770 in May to 4,759 last month, commercial tow boats decreased from 992 to 973, the number of government patrol boats dropped from 23 to 14 and government construction boats dropped from two to zero.

Lockages increased 2.

Lockages increased from 1,080

in May to 1,103 in June, bringing the total for the year to 5,286, which is 10 more than last year at this time. Freight movements in the first six months of the year totaled 22,451,641 tons, slightly below the 23,294,053 reported during the same period last year.

A total of 29,323 vessels had passed through the locks through the end of June, below the number for the first half of last year, 30,776.

Of the total tonnage reported in June, 4,716,006 tons were commercial freight and 350 tons were government shipments.

Total commercial tonnage moving upriver in June was 2,254,156 tons and 2,461,850 tons moved downriver. Freight shipments included: petroleum products, 455,150 tons upriver, 139,450 tons downriver; grain, 44,800 up, 1,923,700 down; coal, 888,500 up, 6,550 down; cement, sand and gravel 28,100 up, 79,850 down; sulphur, 9,000 up, none down; miscellaneous commodities, 304,950 up, 81,200 down; iron and steel products 45,000 up, 157,100 down, and chemicals, 278,056 up, 58,850 down.

Burglary Prevented

A hasp was pried off of the rear door of Charlie's Market, W. 21st Street and Rock Road, in a burglary attempt. It was reported at 7:10 a.m. Friday. Entry was prevented as a large amount of soda cases were piled against the door inside the store.

A five-hour matinee at the Washington Theatre for the preteen crowd is planned Thursday, Aug. 26, as part of "Youth Day" activities during Jubilee Week. It was announced today.

The cartoon marathon, especially arranged for children, 12 years and younger, will start at 1 p.m. and continue until 6 p.m. Aug. 26. A special 25-cent admission price will be charged each day.

Defendant in Murder Misses Arraignment

Arraignments were held last week in Madison County Circuit Court without the presence of one defendant, Mrs. Helen Shipman, 45, of Berkeley, Mo., charged in connection with the murder of her husband, William Vincent Shipman, 65, of Venice, last Jan. 16.

She had been indicted by the Grand Jury on a murder charge, but a court official said that court officials were unable to have a warrant served upon her. The charge had been dismissed by a county magistrate on March 31 prior to the indictment, authorities said. She and her husband had been estranged, authorities said.

Held in the county jail since March in connection with the murder is Curt Kevin Deming, 20, of Berkeley. He had entered a guilty plea, and presentence hearing on aggravation and mitigation has been set for Aug. 4. He also is being held for military authorities as being absent without leave.

A third suspect in the case was last reported to be in the St. Louis County jail.

Rear of Auto Struck

"It is believed that the proposed merger will result in greater and more efficient earning power for stockholders of Granite City through operating economies, the integration of the facilities and organizational strengths of National and Granite City and diversification of resources of the two companies."

"Management of Granite City believes that the merger will add financial strength to its operations, facilitating modernization, replacement or addition of plant and facilities. Both companies expect that the combination of Granite City's

Merger May Mean More Jobs, Stockholders Told

The text of an address by Nicholas P. Veeder, chairman of the board of Granite City Steel Co., at a meeting of stockholders Thursday afternoon, was as follows:

"There have been a good many stockholder inquiries in recent months about various aspects of the proposed merger of Granite City Steel into a wholly-owned subsidiary of National Steel Corporation. The proxy statement for this meeting covers the agreements in great detail. My comments will be brief. However, I do want to take this opportunity to explain why the directors of Granite City Steel Company are unanimous in the opinion that the merger is in the best interests of the company and the best interests of its stockholders."

"I'll start at the beginning. The possibility of this merger became obvious to us, and I presume, to the National Steel people about a year and a half ago when we were negotiating to have a rolled steel band to National's Midwest Steel Division in Portage, Ind., outside Chicago."

"Their need for what we had and our need for what they had became completely clear. The negotiations went forward despite many difficulties in trying to coordinate the operations of two separate and independent steel plants and their trying to determine for Midwest Steel and our trying to determine for Granite City Steel what tonnage of this type are rolling grades and on what schedules, and so forth."

However, we ultimately decided to make a contract to have been a supplier to Midwest Steel since May, 1970.

Initiated Talks

"Somewhere near the end of 1970, the subject of merger came up. As I have said, it was already obvious that there was a good 'fit' between Granite City Steel and National Steel."

"We had been asked about our plans for Granite City Steel's cold strip mill in view of the fact that National's Midwest Steel Division has two of the industry's most modern cold strip mills. Although our cold strip mill is about 25 years old, we expect it to continue to operate and, probably, to eventually be able to modernize it."

"The combination of 'fit' between the two companies offers long-range benefits to both. In my opinion, the merger will in time result in more jobs at our plant here in Granite City. It will provide new financial strength and facilitate the modernization and addition of plant and facilities. And it will have long-range benefits for the stockholders."

"We have received questions as to how the ratio of the proposed exchange of stock was determined and why we didn't obtain a better ratio for Granite City Steel's stockholders in view of the related book values. Regardless of how anyone looks at it, this company is not being sold to National Steel for cash. We are proposing an exchange of stock and, in view of the constructive fit of the two companies, I believe the National stock in our stockholders' hands will be a fine security and I also believe the exchange ratio is fair and reasonable for our stockholders."

"The premium we obtained for our stockholders amounted to 18% in relation to the price of the two stocks at the time the proposed merger was announced last April. Both of these stocks have been publicly traded for years, and market price is a great deal more significant than book value in this sort of transaction."

"However, at the time the exchange ratio was established, National Steel's capital stock was selling at 44% per share or 84% of book value, and Granite City Steel's common stock was selling at 16% per share, or 63% of book value. The exchange price brings our stock up to 74% of book value. Incidentally, at the close of the market yesterday, the premium for Granite City Steel stockholders amounted to 27%."

"When the merger agreement is approved by our stockholders, one step remains. As previously announced, we have postponed the date for the merger to become effective for approximately two weeks, past July 31 to allow the Department of Justice additional time for its review of the proposal."

"We have also responded to a request for information from the Federal Trade Commission although, as we understand it, it is the Department of Justice which has jurisdiction in this case."

Stolen Auto Found
Mrs. Georgia Snelson, 3229 Wayne, reported at 12:10 a.m. Friday that she saw someone steal her 1959 auto from her home. It was located by police at 7 a.m. at W. 21st Street and Rock Road.

Truck Window Removed
The right side window of a truck was removed at the Kas Potato Chip Co. warehouse, according to a theft report logged with police at 6:30 a.m. Friday. Nothing was missing.

Auto License Applications Being Mailed

Mailing has started on 4,300,000 pre-printed applications for 1972 automobile license plates. Secretary of State John W. Lewis reports.

Lewis said, "The pre-printed application affords the vehicle owner a convenient way to apply for new license plates. More than 800,000 reassignments or special requests were handled in this fashion last year and it is anticipated that this number will increase for 1972."

"Plans have been made to have all reassignment requests, which reach this office by the Dec. 31 deadline, delivered by Dec. 1, the first day the 1972 plates can be legally displayed."

The pre-printed applications contain the motorist's name, address, driver's license number and social security number along with the proper description of the vehicle. In addition, the application also denotes the 1971 vehicle license plate number.

Procedure Outlined

Secretary Lewis said, "Anyone wanting to receive the same license number as last year, must write in the remarks area of the application 'Reassignment requested,' sign the application, have it notarized and mail it with the proper fee."

By Illinois statute, any motorist who requests reassignment of the license number held the previous year must be issued that number, providing that the application is received in the Office of the Secretary of State by the legal deadline of Sept. 30. Reassignment requests received after Sept. 30 will not be processed, Lewis added.

The secretary pointed out that instructions on the pre-printed application state that the motorist must fill out any information not contained thereon or to make changes in the application, where applicable.

Lewis urged all motorists to use the pre-printed application, regardless of whether they desire a new license number. The secretary pointed out that instructions on the pre-printed application state that the motorist must fill out any information not contained thereon or to make changes in the application, where applicable.

"The pre-printed applications are designed for use with our data processing equipment," he explained. "And they permit faster handling of plate requests and, in the long run, faster delivery to the motorist."

Sheriffs Endorse New Standards for Jails

The "Illinois County Jail Standards" developed by the Illinois Department of Corrections' Bureau of Detention Facilities and Jail Standards were endorsed last week by the Illinois Sheriffs' Association during its summer convention in Peoria.

The standards were developed by Anthony S. Kubarich, chief of the bureau, and his staff. Kubarich said many Illinois sheriffs made valuable suggestions which were incorporated in the standards.

Corrections Director Peter B. Beninger said, "The Illinois Sheriffs' Association has always worked for improved detention facilities and programs. The association's endorsement of the county jail standards is further demonstration of the group's efforts to upgrade the county jails of Illinois."

Fiedler to Conduct St. Louis Symphony at Festival, Miss Slenczynska to be Soloist

The famous Boston Pops orchestra conductor, Arthur Fiedler, will be guest conductor for the St. Louis Symphony in a Sunday, Aug. 8, concert at the Mississippi River Festival. Ruth Slenczynska, internationally known pianist and artist-in-residence at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern, will also perform. Concert time is 7:30 p.m. at the MRF site on the SIU-SW campus.

Featured will be music from "Hairs" and Miss Slenczynska's performance of Liszt's "Piano Concerto No. 1" with the Symphony and other works.

Fiedler is often referred to as the musical chef after his famous recipe for the great success of the Boston Pops. Fiedler says "a Strauss waltz is as good a thing of its kind as a Beethoven symphony. It's nice to eat a chunk of beef, but you want a slice of light dessert, too."

He was born in Boston's Back Bay and inherited a rich family background of European musical culture. His father was a first violinist with the Boston Symphony, and his mother was a good amateur musician who gave the young Arthur his first piano lessons. "As a young boy I practiced the violin and piano and studied French and German. I'm afraid at that time I didn't like music more than any other kid. Practice and lessons were drudgery," Fiedler said.

Drudgery Pays Off

The drudgery paid off. At the age of twenty, Fiedler joined the Boston Symphony as a violinist. In 1929, he launched the first of the now famous outdoor Esplanade Concerts. The free concerts are given each summer in an attractive natural setting on the east bank of the Charles River at the foot of Boston's Beacon Hill.

A testimonial to Fiedler's efforts came in 1954 when the Massachusetts governor celebrated the 25th anniversary of the concerts by dedicating a new "Arthur Fiedler Bridge" over the highway bordering the area.

In 1939, Fiedler was appointed the 18th conductor of the Boston Pops, a feature of Boston's musical life since 1885. Since that time, the Boston Pops have become as familiar to the music-minded citizens of the world as to the patrons in Boston.

Fiedler has conducted all of the top American orchestras, including the Boston Symphony, a "first," for Fiedler is the only native Bostonian to conduct his city's orchestra. Recording with the Pops, and RCA Victor, Fiedler has several million-sellers, and has more record listings in the Victor RCA catalog than any other orchestra.

Child Prodigy

Compounding the musical treat for MRF fans is the appearance of Miss Ruth Slenczynska, a child prodigy of three decades ago, who at the age of eight made her Town Hall debut. Her debut was described by New York Times critics as "an electrifying experience."

Artist-in-residence at SIU-SW, Miss Slenczynska earned the praise of Sergei Rachmaninoff, who numbered her among his few pupils. She has also studied under Artur Schnabel, Alfred Cortot, Egon Petri and Nadia Boulanger. At the age of 10 she substituted for the ailing Ignace Paderewski on tour. Considered by many to be one of the world's greatest woman pianists, Miss Slenczynska plays more than one hundred concerts a year and has played for several U.S. Presidents. She has also recorded more than one hundred compositions, among them all of Chopin's "Etudes" plus the four "Impromptus," a feat accomplished by few.

She was awarded the Polish Golden Cross of Merit, for bringing Chopin's music closer to the people of the world.

Copper Scraps Taken

A 55 gallon drum filled with copper scraps was stolen from the Headquarters Installation Support Activities, Army Aviation Systems Command facility, formerly the Army Depot, in a burglary reported at 6:30 p.m. Thursday. The southwest corner of the fence surrounding the facility was cut. Three cans and a dolly, apparently used to transfer the metal, were found nearby.

Attendance From Area at Scout Camp Shows Rise

The last week of the summer camping season at Boy Scout Camp Sunnen, located near Potosi, Mo., came to an end Saturday with scouts from 80.7% of the Boy Scout troops in the local council attending. Last summer 72% of the troops had scouts in camp.

Camp attendance showed a 17% camper gain as 612 Boy Scouts spent a week at Sunnen, compared to 529 last summer. An even larger gain is expected next summer, due to the fact the boys and leaders attending camp have had high praise for the camp staff and program throughout the summer.

A new series of camp promotional slides from this summer's activities will be available to Scout units for family nights after Oct. 1. The slides are being provided by the Cahokia Lodge, Order of the Arrow, scouting's honor camping society.

Although the formal summer camping season ended during the weekend, the camp still will be in use. During the year hundreds of Scouts and Explorers continue to use the camp for weekend trips.

The camp also is used as a training center for adult scouts, and the Order of the Arrow will hold several activities at Sunnen throughout the coming year.

Attending camp last week from the Quad-City area were:

—scouts from Troop 102, sponsored by the Suburban Baptist Church, under the leadership of Jim Retter and Jay Wyatt.

Troop 35, sponsored by the International Order of Odd Fellows, had 15 Scouts in camp last week, under the leadership of Reg Memmerick.

Attending the final Order of the Arrow ceremonies at the camp Thursday evening were members of the Council Activities Committee, Dr. Thomas Layloff, G. Rollin Henn, Maurice Dailey Jr., Rick Hooks, Rev. Wendell Garrison and

Report Available on Stimulant Drug Use

Congressman Mevin Price (D-East St. Louis) has announced that a limited number of copies of the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare report on the use of behavioral modification drugs with school children are available to his constituents upon request.

The study is entitled a "Report of the Conference on the Use of Stimulant Drugs in the Treatment of Behaviorally Disturbed Young School Children." In January 1971, the Office of Child Development and the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Health and Scientific Affairs, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, called a conference of 15 specialists in response to public concern over the increasing use of stimulant drugs in treating so-called hyperkinetic behavior disorders.

This report presents some of the mainlines of discussion at this conference such as the general nature of behavior disorders in children, the types of disorders now being treated with stimulant drugs, and the role of the pharmaceutical industry, professionals, and the news media in publicizing stimulant drugs for children.

Anyone desiring a copy of this publication may contact Cong. Price at 2488 Rayburn House Office Building, Washington, D. C. 20515, or write to Publications Division, Office of Child Development, P.O. Box 1182, Washington, D. C., 20013.

English Folk-Rock Concert at MRF Set Wednesday

Mississippi River Festival goers will be provided with a look at the English style of folk-rock with the appearance of Rod Stewart & Faces along with Matthew's Southern Comfort, at 8:30 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 4, on the Southwestern campus of Southern Illinois University.

Stewart, who was featured in the April 1 edition of Newsweek in an article entitled "The Future of Rock," plays the guitar and harmonica, and recently has tried his hand at singing and songwriting. He sounds not unlike Bob Dylan according to some critics.

He once was with the Jeff Beck group that turned down an invitation to perform at Woodstock. Stewart says he used to view it as "my biggest disappointment," but in thinking about it, felt that if the Beck group had appeared, "I might never have been able to pursue a career as a soloist." The group split after returning to Britain.

Appearing with Stewart is former Beck man Ronnie Woods, who makes up part of the Faces. His first album was "An Old Raincoat Will Never Let You Down."

The second portion of the folk-rock program at MRF will feature Ian Matthews and the Southern Comfort, also an English group. Matthews has been the lead singer in the past, but, "It's going to be a more democratic effort now," he claims. Matthews said the second album with the Southern Comfort, "Second Spring," brought to light the talent of the backup musicians, and since that time he has tried to increase the harmony and utilize the piano, including all members of the group in a song.

Although the new look will seem like a "followup to Woodstock," says Carl Barnwell, the only American in the group, "that is not our intention. Other members of the group are all from England."

The new sound from England has been played by several American groups at the Mississippi River Festival, but this will be the first native English group introduced to the local audiences.

MORE ABOUT Pay Hikes

represents projected expenses for general operating items. The mayor said the best available estimates indicate a total revenue of $2,861,306, or $338,148 less than the amount budgeted.

Proposed new working agreements between the city and unions representing city employees were discussed and approved separately in lengthy discussions that frequently resolved into heated arguments over such items as overtime pay, vacation pay and holidays.

Deny Additional Holiday The council approved a motion that a plea made by each of five employees' union groups for an additional holiday be denied. City employees in the past have been allowed nine holidays a year.

Major arguments over working agreements involved clothing allowances in the street and police departments. On a motion by Alderman Sam Whitmer, the individual clothing allowances of $75 per year for employees of the street department be reduced to $50 was carried by an 8 to 4 vote, with 12 council members present. Alderman R. E. Robertson attended the earlier part of the meeting, but left shortly after 8 p.m. Alderman Walter Nonn was absent, reporting to the city clerk that he had to work.

The aldermen rejected, however, an effort to cut the police department clothing allowance of $40 per year to $25 which was the amount of last year's allowance. A motion by Alderman Roy Poulos to leave the figure at $25 was defeated by a vote of 8 to 4.

Also turned down by the council was a motion by Baker to withhold $50 monthly pay raises, granted all city employees, for the custodian and matron of the city hall. Both Baker and Partney maintained the custodian and matron already have higher salaries than some of the principal office workers and that the raise was not justified.

Several aldermen argued that this was "nit picking" and that if raises were determined on an individual basis then all of the raises should be reconsidered.

No Package Deals

Baker, as chairman of the Negotiating Committee, announced that a negotiation of working agreements next year will be conducted on each individual issue and that "there will be no package deals." The first series of working agreements approved by the council along with the budget on July 19 also was vetoed by the mayor on grounds that many of the expanded fringe benefits were not provided in the budget.

The city effects agreements with unions representing five of its major operating departments.—The Street Department, Police Department, Fire Department, Sewage Treatment Plant and the City Hall Employees.

Principal changes in the budget presented at the special meeting Friday included a reduction of $102,085 in the appropriation for sewer maintenance. This item originally was set at $208,995 but after revisions last week was reduced to $106,900, which included a cut of $100,000 for sewer repairs.

The new budget also reduced to $50,000 an appropriation for acquiring a new street department garage. This figure originally was set at $100,000 but was reduced by one budget change to $25,000 and then restored to $100,000 by council action on July 19.

New Budget Figures

New appropriation figures adopted Friday night in the city's major operating departments, compared with amounts set in the budget that was vetoed, are:

Fire Department, total budget of $565,504, a reduction of $21,700 below the $587,204 contained in the budget of July 19.

Street Department, total budget of $446,085, a cut of $65,725 from the original $511,810.

Police Department, total budget of $516,296, an increase of $10,659 over the original $505,636.

Sewage Treatment Plant, total budget of $372,001, up from the original figure of $275,043. This increase results from a new appropriation of $102,000 for consulting engineering services for the city's secondary sewage treatment project.

MORE ABOUT 23% Water

cause we have no choice but to fulfill our obligation of service to our customers.

"We simply cannot do everything possible to hold the line in the face of inflationary pressures which have forced increases in the costs of all goods and services," he said, "but the steadily rising costs of labor, materials, services, and local taxes to support schools and other governmental functions, coupled with the high interest costs which we must pay to finance plant additions and improvements, have forced the company to seek this rate relief."

"We are not quarreling with these increased costs as such," said Mr. Greaves, "but are merely pointing out some of the facts of life in the belief that if our customers know the facts, they will better understand our urgent need to charge a higher price for our product and service."

After all, the cost of government is going up, the cost of money is going up, the cost of capable and efficient employees is going up, and we must be able to expand our water facilities and invest more money to provide our customers with a safe and adequate supply of water."

Cost Exceeds Income

Mr. Greaves said that the net effect of the company's experience on a going level basis since its last rate adjustment is that the very small increase in revenues has been more than offset by the large increase in operating expenses. Therefore, the company's income today on a going level basis is substantially less than when it was last found it was entitled in its last rate order.

Yet, by year end, the company will have invested over $6 million dollars over and above that which the commission considered in fixing our present rates.

"Thus," he explained, "for all practical purposes, we are earning no return at all on the additional, substantial investment in plant and facilities to serve the needs of our customers."

Mr. Greaves said that "we know our customers will want to be informed as to how the increase will affect their individual water bills," and added that "small water users in the Low Service Area, whose customers consuming 1,200 cubic feet of water or less per month will experience a rise of 73 cents per month or about 2 1/2 cents a day."

This will affect about 35% of the residential customers in the Low Service Area, he said. The residential customer's water bill presently averages $5.32 per month, will pay $6.05 under the proposed rates. On a daily basis, the rise will amount to about 4 1/2 cents, Mr. Greaves explained.

The small water user's bill in the High Service Area will be increased approximately 79 cents a month or just over 2 1/2 cents a day. These customers comprise about 36% of the residential customers in the High Service Area. The increase to the residential customer in the High Service Area whose bill presently averages $5.38 per month will pay $6.86 under the proposed rates. On a daily basis, this increase will amount to about 4 1/2 cents, Mr. Greaves explained.

"The cost of water delivered to the faucet of the average residential customer has been only about one-seventh of a cent per gallon under the proposed rates," Mr. Greaves said. "That's still a bargain for this most essential of all services, no matter how you look at it, what service or product you compare it with," he commented.

For the remaining customers, the increase received will vary with the quantity of water consumed, but the overall effect of the new schedule will be to increase the rates by an average of about 23%. These rates will be effective, however, until the commission has held public hearings and made a thorough study of the evidence which the company will submit in support of them," he said.

VEGETABLE CUT AND SIZING AFFECTS PRICE

If you're looking for ways to stretch your food dollar, keep in mind when buying canned and frozen vegetables that cut up ones are generally less expensive than whole vegetables. Fancy-cut vegetables, for example long cut french fries, usually cost more than diced or short-cut styles. Vegetables in mixed sizes, such as peas, are cheaper than ones of uniform size.

GO TO EXTREMES TO PREVENT FOOD POISONING

Protect your family from food poisoning by keeping hot foods hot—above 140 degrees F.—and cold foods cold—below 40 degrees F. Bacteria and micro-organisms that produce harmful toxins grow most rapidly in food that is just warm and neither hot or cold.

ICY WATER CRISPS GREENS You can crisp up greens by placing them in a bowl of icy water for 10 to 30 minutes. Be sure to offset the root position of the greens.

Independent Voters Thwart Political Machine Growth; Fine Schools, Parks, Library

Granite City's Diamond Jubilee will be observed beginning Saturday, Aug. 21. This is the 29th in a series on local history.

Granite City in the early 1940s had 22,954 inhabitants, of which 2,000 were foreign-born and 3,500 of foreign or mixed parentage.

Included were Mexicans, Armenians, Hungarians, Bulgarians, Macedonians, Poles, Greeks, Germans and Italians.

Narodni Glas (National Herald), semi-weekly Bulgarian newspaper, had been published in Granite City since 1907.

Though generally Americanized, residents of Lincoln Place Church cherished many vestiges of native culture. Bulgarian and Hungarian bands were on hand to grind old World polkas and waltzes at folk dances held in the Hungarian Home and the Lincoln Place Community Center.

There were several Armenian coffee houses. A predilection for lamb, mutton, frioles, stuffed peppers and cabbage—all pungently seasoned—was evident in local cuisine.

Of customs observed, most quaint was that which symbolizes the action of Roman soldiers who, it is said, in futile attempts at dispersion, heaved buckets of water upon the crowd that gathered at Christ's tomb after the Resurrection.

On Easter Monday, Hungarian children, equipped with bottles of perfumed water, go from door to door, spattering whoever answers their knock. In return, they are given candy, cakes and Easter eggs.

The various national groups were represented by the German Beneficial Union, Hrair Chapter of the A. R. F., an Armenian patriotic and student-aid society, the First Catholic Slovak Union.

Podkripta, Bulgarian Macedonian mutual aid society; Makedonska, Macedonian workers club; Bishin Krai, Macedonian political organization.

Bulgarka, Bulgarian women's club; and the Veray Association, a Hungarian fraternal and insurance society.

Mixed in membership were the Lincoln Progressive Club, which undertook civic improvements in Lincoln Place.

Granite City had various units of the D. A. R., W. C. T. U., Rotary Club, American Legion, Rebekah Lodge, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Order of Eastern Star, Daughters of Union Veterans, Optimist Club, Parent-Teacher Association and Spanish-American War Veterans.

Chief of numerous social clubs for women were Ladies' Coffee, Phi Tau Omega, Junior Service Club, Bay View Reading Club, Lesche Literary Club, Military Order of Lady Bugs and auxiliary of veterans' organizations.

Bridge and pinocle clubs abounded along with church societies. In addition there were a Commercial Club, Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club and Tri-City Chamber of Commerce.

The Elks, Eagles, Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias and Knights of Columbus maintained permanent quarters.

St. David's Benevolent and Choral Society, composed of Welsh-Americans, had held an all-ethnoid yearly since 1908.

Based on the ancient bardic congress of Wales, an all-ethnoid was a formal contest of singers, orators, musicians and elocutionists. Prizes ranged from $2 for child soloists to $50 for choruses.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. David's Society sponsored an annual Welsh Tea to raise funds for charitable purposes.

Sometimes Democratic, sometimes Republican, Granite City had discouraged many a Madison County political prophet.

Uncommonly discriminative in municipal campaigns, local citizens more often than not elected independent candidates rather than nominees of the two major parties.

Their votes had put down fixers and boddlers, and thwarted the growth of machines.

The city had the aldermanic system of government. Elected officials were the mayor, clerk, treasurer, police magistrate and two aldermen from each of seven wards.

All served four years. The city hall, built in 1929, was an impressive three-story structure fronted by landscaped grounds.

The Granite City Park District was administered by five elected commissioners.

Memorial Park and West Granite Park were small city tracts, with shaded walks and flower gardens. Wilson Park, at the northern outskirts, has a swimming pool, playgrounds, accommodations for picnickers, and facilities for tennis, croquet, baseball, horseshoes and night softball.

The park board also maintained the Lincoln Place Community Center and parkways on Twenty-fourth and Twenty-seventh boulevards.

Work Projects Administration recreational projects operated the year long at Wilson Park, West Granite Park and the community center.

The public library, a handsome brick building with classic detail, was erected in 1929 at a cost of $85,700. It contained 35,000 volumes, including technical collections that enabled industrial workers to educate themselves for better jobs.

The general reference department had books seldom available in other large metropolitan libraries. Free of fussiness, a valuable tool in daily community life, this institution reflected the advanced policies of Mrs. Olive B. Stallings, librarian since 1917.

The education system consisted of three parochial eighth grade schools and the Granite City Community High School.

Public grade schools were trim brick structures, well maintained and equipped. Built at a cost of $600,000, the high school offered general, vocational and college preparatory curricula.

The vocational curriculum comprised home economics, commercial and industrial courses. Students enrolled in the popular Smith-Hughes Shop, or industrial course, received training in mechanics, drafting, chemistry, electricity and pattern making.

Besides trophy-winning athletic teams (known as the Happy Warriors), Granite City Community High School produced champions in music and the speech arts.

Its band and choral groups held consistent high rank in festival competition.

The chapter of the National Forensic League led all others in total points earned at national tournaments. The chapter was sponsored by Miss Mary Blackburn, who also directed a summer theater for young folk.

Spirits of churches rose over Granite City. Eighteen of these were Protestant, two Roman Catholic and one Bulgarian Orthodox.

Methodist and Baptist congregations were the largest among Protestant denominations. The Young Men's Christian Association had a $250,000 building, with 68 rooms, a swimming pool and gymnasium.

Sisters of Divine Providence managed St. Elizabeth Hospital, a four-story brick structure with facilities for 104 patients. St. Elizabeth's School for Nurses graduated between 40 and 50 students annually.

Next: Summing it up.

Stevenson for 'Veep'? A Few 'Ifs'

By KEN WATSON
Copley News Service
Springfield—The mayor is signalling the senator.

This is an interpretation placed on the suggestion by Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley that the Democrats next year nominate Milwaukee Mayor Henry W. Maier for vice-president.

The interpretation comes from one of the Statehouse's most knowledgeable and respected political figures and is that Daley is warning U. S. Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III of Illinois to watch his political step or forget about any national ticket ambitions in 1972.

Among veteran Illinois politicians, it is taken for granted that Daley never does or says anything without having a specific purpose.

Majority of Milwaukee since 1960 and apparently a good as well as popular one, appeared about as surprised as anyone by the Mayor's suggestion made at a press conference during a mayoralty convention in Milwaukee.

In the world of political realism there is about as much chance of the Democrats nominating a Milwaukee mayor for vice-president next year as there is of them picking Spiro Agnew.

Daley, who could well claim title to the No. 1 position in the entire United States, knows this as well as anyone. But he also knows that there is a very good chance indeed that Stevenson could end up in that spot.

Stevenson knows, it too, and this is believed to be the main reason he is planning a major international trip next month which will reportedly take him to Vietnam, China and the Soviet Union.

The senator on July 15 applied for a visa to enter Red China and even the surprise announcement that President Nixon was to visit the White House.

Members present included the chairman, Mrs. Lucille Russell, and Mesdames Lucille Webb, Virginia, Virginia Carroll, Marian Whitaker, Viola Thornberry, Ruth Gibbs, Mary Bailey and Sandra Devenay.

CLUB INDUCT MEMBER

Mrs. Ruth Hubbard, treasurer of the White by White Club, conducted last week's meeting at the East Side Levee office. Mrs. Sharon Bridick read reports and weight records were completed by Mrs. Jo Gipson and Mrs. Rasmie Bronnhauser. Mrs. Hubbard gave the treasury report.

A new member, Shirley Rainwater, was accepted and three guests, Alma Baker, Shelby Holman and Kathy Johnson, were introduced by Mrs. Gipson.

Karen Poole was crowned "queen"; "princess" for the week was Paula Elmore, and Vernelle Randall won the night's "wishing well" gift.

It was decided to hold a Sept. 12 family picnic at Cahokia Mounds State Park. Each family is to bring its own food basket.

Mrs. Gipson presented achievement awards to Elsie Kathenia, Deborah Snell, Shirley Crockett, Mary Craig and Vernelle Randall.

Mrs. Elsie Mathenia spoke and gave closing prayer.

Private Rites Held For Hilt Infant

Private graveside services were conducted at 2:30 p.m. today at St. John Cemetery, 2901 Nameki Road, for James Lewis Hilt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer (Merline) Hilt of 3207 Edsall Ave., Alton.

The infant was stillborn at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 2:35 a.m. today. He weighed three pounds, 12 ounces. He has a twin brother who survives and weighed four pounds and 15 ounces at birth. Other survivors include grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hilt and Mrs. Rosella Norma Huffstader, all of Granite City.

Comper Hilt Parked Car

The left rear of a camper driven by Charles A. White Jr., 2132 Harrison St., struck the right rear of the parked auto of Linette Galt, 2427 Washington Ave., at 5:45 p.m. Friday on the parking lot of Granite City Trust & Savings Bank.

visit there before next May, did not detract from any Stevenson preliminary stop. It might even add to the latter's publicity.

Stevenson, because of the name he bears, is already attracting far more Washington and national attention than the ordinary freshman senator.

In many respects, the situation developing for 1972 is tailor-made for a Stevenson candidacy for vice-president.

With practical politicians—including those in Illinois more and more inclined to rule Sen. Edward "Ted" Kennedy out of the presidential picture, Democrats appear increasingly likely to go before voters with either Sen. Edmond Muskie of Maine or Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington.

Not only would they need a Midwesterner to balance the ticket, they would also need one with a "name" to add some color. Stevenson could provide both.

With Daley possessing the political power and influence that he does even on the national scene, it is entirely possible that—should he could—obtain the vice-presidential nomination for Stevenson.

Likewise, he could probably deny it with a phone call. Stevenson, of course, is aware of this, but may well have had a brief lapse of political memory in the glamorous world of Washington.

Daley's off the cuff endorsement of Mayor Maier, which attracted national press attention, was undoubtedly a sharp reminder.

Stevenson in several recent Chicago appearances has been careless in stepping on the mayor's toes in regard to some sensitive issues, including that battle over the lakefront football stadium.

Adlai will also have to be more careful about what he says on such loftier matters as the Vietnam war, civil disorder and possible presidential nominees.

Daley's own political star may at last be fading. But the mayor still runs the Democratic party in Illinois and he is in no mood to let Adlai Stevenson forget it.

Stevenson's public reply to all this is that he wants to serve his entire six-year Senate term. Smiling, he adds that he might "second the mayor's nomination of Mayor Maier."

Tight Job Market Snag to 'Work for a Living' Plan

By JOHN MURARO
Copley News Service

Springfield — A General Assistance, cases on the public aid rolls in the Chicago area are being reviewed as a preliminary to enforcing Gov. Richard Ogilvie's "work for a living" aid program, but the operation is running into an unexpected snag in the tight job market in Chicago.

Gershon Hurwitz, deputy public aid director, said the review of the cases is continuing, but no figures are available just now on the number of public aid recipients who have been found jobs.

Harold Swank, state public aid director, had said a few weeks ago that certain aspects of the program were expected to be in operation by July 1, and the entire program to be "well along" by the end of the current calendar year.

Under the program, able-bodied public aid recipients must seek jobs—and accept them when found, or be dropped from the aid rolls. Hurwitz said that he is not aware of any widespread resistance to the plan among recipients, but added that presently there "just aren't enough jobs" in the Chicago area. Job placement for aid recipients is often doubly difficult because many have limited educations and no job skills.

The public aid department also is currently reviewing medical costs and other benefits to aid recipients, seeking areas where cuts can be made to lower budgets, without having to cut into basic maintenance grants.

"We are considering a number of areas," Hurwitz said, "to see what we can possibly manage to reduce expenditures to fit the budget."

Swank had said the aid department would move with deliberate speed, to recognize pitfalls and avoid them before implementing the new program.

One part of the governor's program would call for public aid recipients to call for their aid warrants at a state employment office rather than receiving grants through the mails.

Bill on Bus, Air, Rail Half-Fares For Sr. Citizens

Senior citizens would be guaranteed substantially reduced transportation rates under legislation Cong. Melvin Price of this district introduced in the House of Representatives Friday.

The Price bill establishes half-fares for individuals 65 and older not employed full time who travel by air, rail or bus during nonrush hours.

Under the bill, common carriers in both interstate and intrastate commerce would be eligible for federal assistance for economic loss incurred with providing the service.

"Today in this country," Price declared, "more than 20 million senior citizens are transit deprived. These Americans," the 24th District Democrat noted, "are physically and financially less mobile. They need public transportation more than any other age group."

Nutrition, Transportation Citing the interim White House Conference Report on Aging, Price observed "Transportation ranks second only to nutrition as being the most important need of senior citizens."

He continued, "One mark of a nation's greatness is the manner in which she treats her elderly. We cannot remain indifferent to the needs of our advancing generations."

"While the U. S. is considered the most mobile nation in the world, last year only 1% of our citizens over age 65 crossed a state line. Most of our senior citizens are being forced to remain home on fixed incomes as transportation fares continue to rise and as our transportation industry continues to falter."

"My bill seeks to remedy both problems by making transportation available to our senior citizens at reasonable costs and by creating additional common carrier demand for our transportation industry."

The Price bill has been referred to the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee.

MEMORIAL TO A BANDIT. The bank Jesse James and his gang allegedly robbed of $60,000 on Feb. 13, 1866, now serves as a museum in Liberty, Mo. that attracts thousands every year. The marker attests to the unsolved crime that launched the career of the most famous outlaw in the Old West.

Jesse James Legend Takes on a New Gloss

By BILL HILL
Copley News Service

Liberty, Mo. — The Jesse James gang has galloped through volumes charged with the first daylight bank robbery carried out here 105 years ago. Legend and fact have ridden hard with them. Legend is that the James gang did the job. It is, it was never proven.

Even today, nearly 90 years after Jesse was gunned down at St. Joseph, April 3, 1882, you still can get an argument on fact and legend inside the bank the James gang allegedly robbed.

Ironically, the bank — which never recovered from the $60,000 robbery loss — now houses a museum and, you guessed it, the Jesse James Bank Museum on courthouse square.

More ironic, perhaps, is the fact that the museum is owned and operated by relatives of George Wymore, a 10-year-old boy killed accidentally during the robbers' getaways.

Legend and fact, fiction and fantasy surrounding the Robin Hood of the Old West and his daring exploits, still add up to money in western Missouri, but not at the point of a gun. Tourists do it out with little persuasion from the friendly folks preserving the history and legends of Jesse James.

Visitors come from all over the world to tour the bank where they can pick up a map of points of interest — four of these are sites of train robberies by the James gang — within a 100-mile radius.

They come to see Jesse's grave at Kearney — his remains were moved here in 1902 from the family plot on the farm north of Kearney.

They visit Frank's final resting place at Independence, or go to Lexington where federal troops wounded Jesse, May 15, 1885, or visit the site of the James home north of Kearney.

State historical markers pinpoint the major activities of the James gang's 16-year reign. If any event could ever cause someone to turn over in his grave, Gov. T. T. Crittenden, who paid Robert Ford $5,000 for killing Jesse, surely must have when the markers were erected. On the other hand, Crittenden rode to national fame with Jesse, in a manner of speaking.

Visitors come to tour the old Jackson County Jail, in nearby Independence, which lays claim to being the only completely restored Old West jail in the Midwest. Among its most notable boarders were Frank James and the famous — never in a gun — border-warrior William Quantrill.

Thousands of prisoners languished in the dungeon-like cells of native limestone during the Civil War that divided Missouri. At one time, families of southern sympathizers were herded into the cells at this jumping-off place for settlers headed west on the Santa Fe and Oregon trails.

The Jackson County Historical Society is headquartered here and displays an unusually interesting collection of historical Missourians.

But back to the subject that brought us here — Jesse James and the James Country.

Visitors can pick up facsimiles of the $5,000 reward poster issued Feb. 14, 1866, by Frank Love, president of the Clay County Savings Association, the day following the daylight robbery attributed to Jesse James.

Or, a copy of the poster issued July 26, 1881, by Gov. Crittenden, also offering a $5,000 reward — "dead or alive" — for either Jesse or Frank James.

For $1.50, the Bank Museum offers a paperback book titled "Good Bye, Jesse James," containing a collection of the major news stories from the old Kansas City Journal reporting the death and burial of the famous outlaw.

These stories reflect some of the reasons the James gang was able to stay at large for so many years. The attitude of the public was far from hostile toward the James boys.

Recollections of the depredations committed by Jesse and his band of country boy brigands have mellowed with time, leaving a two-gun legend of an outlaw more hero than rascal and tourist-oriented western Missouri has put a new gloss on the legend.

With the passing of time and the benefit of television, romantic Missourians have taken Jesse James and his marauders to their bosoms as tough, resourceful, hell-bent, hardriding native sons. Bob and Charley Ford are the villains.

Jesse James commanded a prominent place in Thomas Hart Benton's Missouri murals in the state capital.

Pierce Favors Paul Simon for Governor Race

By JERRY OWENS
Copley News Service

Springfield — State Rep. Daniel Pierce, D-Highland Park, says he is interested in seeking statewide office next year on the Democratic ticket.

Attorney Pierce, who sought the party's endorsement for state treasurer in 1970, is most often mentioned for lieutenant governor or attorney general.

The 43-year-old, four-term lawmaker is Democratic state central committeeman in the 12th Congressional District. He lives in Lake County.

If Lt. Gov. Paul Simon, a downstate, gets the nod for governor, geographic considerations may mean slating an upstate like Pierce for lieutenant governor.

And Pierce feels Simon should be the governor candidate.

"Served with Distinction" — "It seems to be logical that a man who served with great distinction and independence in both the House and the Senate, and won the office of lieutenant governor in a year (1968) when the Republicans carried the state for president, governor and U. S. senator, should be the logical choice," he says of Simon.

He believes two other gubernatorial prospects, Chicagoans Daniel Walker and Thomas Foran "lack experience in state government."

Concerning his possible candidacy for attorney general, Pierce thinks Atty. Gen. William Scott would be a tough Republican foe. "But Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie might not run for re-election," he says, "and if that happens, Scott would undoubtedly be shifted to run for governor."

Pierce was endorsed for the state treasurer nomination in 1970 by his home Lake County Democrats. If Alan Dixon had not received the nod, Pierce and Rep. James Londrigan of Springfield reportedly would have been seriously considered.

City Fathers OK Youth Parade; Softball Maybe

A "Youth Day" parade, part of Granite City's Jubilee Week festivities, will take place at 10 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 26. Permission to hold the parade and make provisions for a police escort was granted by the city council last week.

The action was taken in response to a request from Alfred Leavell, "Youth Day" coordinator, who also asked the city fathers to organize a softball team to play members of a youth squad, at 1 p.m. Aug. 26 at Wilson Park.

Despite the promise of a trophy to be awarded the winning team, the aldermen deferred action on the latter request.

Leavell said the youthful marchers would assemble on the Pehling Road side of Wilson Park, proceed to Namevski Road and march south on Madison Avenue to Niedringhaus Avenue and west on Niedringhaus to the city hall, where an honorary mayor, police chief and fire chief will be introduced.

The paraders will continue to 20th and Benton streets and north on Benton to Wilson Park, Leavell said.

Purse Stolen

Agnes Miller, 2022 Fourth St., Madison, told police that while she was in Monday Maid Coin Laundry, Edwardsville Road and McCambridge Avenue, at 8:45 p.m. Thursday, two teen-aged boys took her purse from the top of a washer and fled through the front doorway. The purse contained $15, her sunglasses and personal papers.

Pierce was endorsed for the state treasurer nomination in 1970 by his home Lake County Democrats. If Alan Dixon had not received the nod, Pierce and Rep. James Londrigan of Springfield reportedly would have been seriously considered.

FLYING LOW, the Art Arfons jet-powered car, the Super Cyclops, blasted off the starting line in a demonstration run at the AHRA Gateway Nationals yesterday. Arfons finished his quarter-mile run at 257.88 miles per hour. Fans in the background held their ears in the deafening blast of the jet's engine and afterburner.

50,000 Jam Raceway Here During Drag Racing Days

Nearly 50,000 spectators over three days jammed St. Louis International Raceway Friday, Saturday and yesterday for one of the 10 largest and most exciting drag racing programs in the nation each year, the American Hot Rod Association's Gateway Nationals.

The highlight of the three days came yesterday afternoon in the final elimination events for the AA/fuel dragsters, the funny cars, the super stocks, the GT-1 and GT-2 cars, three classes of street cars and two classes of motorcycles. Prize money exceeded $150,000 in the three days, most of it being earned yesterday.

Crowds watched in amazement as Art Arfons drove the 12,000 horsepower jet car, the Super Cyclops, through the quarter-mile, finishing at a speed of 257.88 miles per hour. The thrust from the jet engine and afterburner sent spectators scattering and knocked down the "trees" of starting lights. For a change, the official AHRA flagman donned a crash helmet and rode the quarter-mile with Arfons. His description after the ride — "Wild Man!"

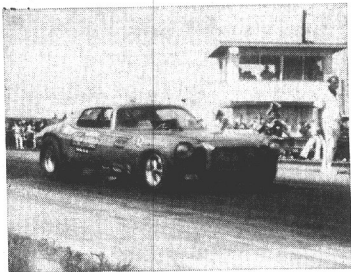

In the second round of funny car eliminations, favorite and point leader Dickie Harrell jumped the gun by a fraction of a second, was given the red light and declared out of the competition.

Before the race Harrell explained that he played the starting lights closer than any other driver in drag racing and yesterday he apparently played too closely. In drag racing, one mistake eliminates a competitor from the remainder of the meet.

Harrell said that at the starting line his reflexes are so keen that he can actually see the last yellow light begin to glow, light brightly and begin to fade, at which time he literally jumps his car from the starting line.

The funny car competition was won by Tom Hoover of Minneapolis, Minn., in a White Bear Dodge after defeating LeRoy Goldstein's Ramchargers Dodge of Detroit, Mich. Hoover's time was 7.038 seconds with a completion speed of 212.77 miles per hour.

Another favorite in the funny cars, Gene Snow of Fort Worth, Tex., in the Rambunctious Dodge was eliminated in the semifinal bracket by Tom Prock of Mount Clemens, Mich., in the Berghel & Prock Vega.

ONE MISTAKE was all that was needed to eliminate favorite "Mr. Chevrolet" Dickie Harrell of Kansas City, Mo., from the final competition at the St. Louis International Raceway yesterday afternoon. Harrell's Camaro is shown two feet off the starting line in the run which eliminated him from the competition for starting a split-second before the green light.

"Big Daddy" Don Garlits of Tampa, Fla., in the Swamp Rat Dodge top fuel rail car, was eliminated in the semi-final bracket by Dale Funk of Radcliff, Ky. John Wiebe of Newton, Kan., in the Kansas John Dodge, fell to Steve Carbone of Tulsa, Okla., in a Dodge rail car that bracket.

Carbone and Funk battled for the championship with Carbone winning with a quarter-mile in 6.55 seconds and a finishing speed of 225.01 miles per hour.

The Haller & Freeman car, driven by Royce Freeman of Edmond, Okla., won the super stock competition over Bob Lambert of Van Nuys, Calif., who faulted for a red light in the final drag. GT-1 winner was Harold Tomlinson of Dallas, Tex., and the GT-2 winner was Gary Kimball of Kansas City, Mo.

Area Teams Win Nine Games in Women's Meet

Local teams won nine games during the weekend as the third annual Women's Slow Pitch Softball Tournament opened with 19 teams in the field Saturday at Wilson Park. Nine local teams were after the title.

In action Saturday Mercer dropped Bob and Ann's 12-2 behind the pitching of Judy Stepanek. Seven runs were scored in the second inning by Merces; the winners garnered 16 hits and the losers managed seven.

Kentucky Chicken fried the Stonets of Decatur 22-9 on 26 hits. Decatur bagged 15 hits. Vaughn's Pharmacy had a lucky 13 runs to beat Jacobs-meyer's 13-3. Margaret Robbins was the winner.

The GC Rebels won from Waterloo by forfeit. Mathews took the lead in the first and held it, beating Hecker 8-3 with 12 hits.

Marissa cooled Madison Fire Department 19-2. The Firemen tagged only three hits and made six errors.

Sammy's put up a good battle Saturday but lost to Val-meyer 15-7. Valmeyer led hitting 19-12, and Sammy's made eight errors.

In Sunday games, Sammy's beat Hecker 9-1, winning pitcher was Dixie James.

Madison Firemen lost to First National Bank of East St. Louis 15-4, making 12 errors.

Mathews showed no mercy on Vaughn's 14-3 on 16 hits. Sherry Wilson held Vaughn's to nine hits.

GC Rebels defeated Valmeyer 11-6 on 16 hits. Thelma Pyles was the winning pitcher. Jacobs-meyer fell to the top of Sammy's bats, 12-6, and Mercer topped Kentucky Chicken 9-3.

DeMolays Make All-Star Team

Three Granite City DeMolays made the all-star team in the DeMolay state softball tournament Saturday and Sunday at Jacksonville.

They are Wally Todd, Jerry Todd and Steve Hiehlman. Others on the local squad were Michael Bissen, Billy Mihu, Max Merz, Michael Byrd, Steve Phillips, Michael Sparks, Robert Swigert and Joseph Swigert. Jesse Phillips accompanied the team.

East Moline won the tournament.

Jones, Spalding Earn Victories at Speedway

Bobby Jones of Danville was the elated winner of the feature race for super-sprint cars at the Tri-City Speedway last night, a race awarding double points.

Jones took an early lead in the event ahead of Junior Dietzel of Jefferson City, Mo., and Spalding of Pontoon Beach and Bill Utz of Sedalia, Mo., and held it for 20 laps for the checkered flag.

The action in the race came from Utz and Bobby Ward of Conway, Ark., the 1970 Arkansas state champion, attempting to take the third position from Spalding. Numerous times Utz and Ward would inch in front of Spalding, only to have the local driver pour on the gas and retake the third position.

Jim Neff of St. Louis, driving the Gush Shom sprinter, 90 spin out in the ninth lap and again in the 15th lap to be eliminated from the race under a two spin-out rule. Neff's mishaps brought out the only yellow flags of the event.

Spalding Gets 3rd Win Spalding recorded a win in the late model stock feature, his third in two nights. He won in both classes at the Capital City Speedway in Jefferson City, Mo., Saturday night. He fought close competition from John Kipp tagged a home run for the Eagles in a 12-6 loss to the Bricklayers.

In the Church League Friday, Niedringhaus Methodist dropped Grace Baptist 8-5. Ken Tankley homered and Don Dillard hit a triple.

GC Swimmer Qualifies For Two U. S. Meets

In one of the most spectacular exhibitions of outstanding ability and stamina witnessed in regional swimming competition, Karen Reisinger of Granite City won four first-place medals in the Region VIII AAU championship meet Friday through Sunday at Fort Smith, Ark.

Karen, 14, concluded her one-girl domination of the five-state AAU meet late yesterday by outdistancing her opponents in the one-mile (1,500 meters) freestyle race to gain qualifying berths in three events at the United States AAU championships. The national meet will be staged this month at Houston, Tex.

At the same Fort Smith location Thursday, the local girl captured two gold medals in the Region VIII Junior Olympics and qualified for the National Junior Olympics at the U. S. Air Force Academy, Colorado, starting next Monday.

In recording the four first-place victories in the regional AAU championships, Karen smashed three Region VIII records, one by a 3-second margin. She had established all three records in last year's meet.

Her qualifying times and first-place wins for the U. S. open included the 400-meter freestyle, 4:46 minutes, which broke her former record by 3 seconds; 200-meter butterfly, 2:34.7 minutes; and 1,500-meter freestyle, 18:34 minutes.

Two weeks ago at Louisville, Ky., the youthful swimmer recorded an 18:29 minute mark in the distance event. Her time at Fort Smith, however, set a new record in Region VIII competition.

The Granite Cityan also won a first-place medal and set a new Region VIII record in the 400-meter individual medley race in 5:29 minutes and won a second-place medal in the 400-meter breaststroke.

In Thursday's Junior Olympics regional meet, Karen captured top marks in the 100-meter butterfly, with a time of 1:14.4 minutes, and the 200-meter individual medley, in 2:38.3 minutes. Both new marks qualified the contestant for next week's National Junior Olympics in Colorado Springs.

A spectator at the Fort Smith meets commented today, "Karen looked tremendous. After swimming in a grueling four-day meet, she came through the one-mile swim like the champion she is. Everyone should be very proud of her accomplishments."
